FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kathleen Seeberg Assumes Role of Executive Director at NAMI Mississippi

Ridgeland, MS — NAMI Mississippi proudly announces the appointment of Kathleen Seeberg as its new Executive Director, effective December 2023. With an impressive background in nonprofit leadership and a commitment to community service, Seeberg brings a wealth of experience to lead NAMI Mississippi in its mission to support individuals and families affected by mental illness.

Kathleen Seeberg's journey with NAMI Mississippi began in December 2023, marking a pivotal moment for the organization. Previously, Kathleen served as the Director of Marketing & Communication for the Mississippi State Medical Association, demonstrating her dedication to the promotion of healthcare initiatives since her relocation from Wisconsin in December 2021.

Graduating from Western Illinois University, Kathleen has been a leader in nonprofit organizations for over 24 years. Her commitment to community service extends beyond her professional career. She resides in Brandon with her husband, James, whom she met during her time at Western Illinois University. Together, they have two children, a daughter (21) and a son (28).

Kathleen's passion for community service is evident through her active involvement with various organizations, including the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Geneva Lake Women's Association, Bloomfield "Kid's Day Out," and Geneva Lakes Family YMCA.

Available for Interviews:

Kathleen Seeberg is available for interviews to discuss her vision for NAMI Mississippi and her dedication to advancing mental health awareness and support in the community. Media representatives are encouraged to contact Ms. Seeberg at kseeberg@namims.org to schedule interviews with her.

NAMI Mississippi looks forward to the positive impact Kathleen Seeberg will bring as the Executive Director and is excited about the continued growth of mental health advocacy under her leadership.
